

UConn Ambulatory Care Center

Engineering services from PowerHawke, Inc. are being used throughout the construction of the UConn Ambulatory Care Center in Farmington, CT. The project will consolidate all of the outpatient practices currently located in the Dowling North and South buildings into one convenient location UConn's lower campus in Farmington. The ACC will also be the new home for the Carole and Ray Neag Comprehensive Cancer Center.

Market:

Engineered Solutions

Date:

2011

Location:

Chicopee, CT

Engineering Services Provided:

- Design Assist project
- Scheduling
- Procurement
- Trade coordination
- Cable schedules
- Vendor submittal reviews